

What happened in Las Vegas?

(The Spiritual Perspective)

Magenta Pixie (The White Winged Collective Consciousness of Nine)

What happened in Las Vegas? Was it a False Flag? Why is this still allowed to happen given that we are in the process of an Ascension cycle and moving into a higher dimensional state? What can we do to make people wake up and realise what is going on, on this planet? Are the Angels and Extra Terrestrials helping us? Why did they allow this to happen? Why can't this be stopped once and for all?

How can we heal from this, integrate it and move forward with joy, hope and faith when things like this keep on happening. What can we do?

The event you speak of is multi-layered. The subjective interpretations are paramount. Trust that which comes to you, either in the form of de-coding signs, research, intuitions, messages and downloads.

One will feel as though they wish to tell the world what they know, what they see, yet it is only the receptive, the thinkers amongst you that shall recieve the information you present.

We will say that the de-coding and interpretations of this particular event has occured in a much more rapid sense than previous events such as this.

You use the term false-flag within your question and this in itself is most misunderstood. This simply interprets as presenting that which is false or presenting as one presentation when in truth it was another.

I show you I am blue, I present as blue, I give records and proof that I am blue when in truth, hidden behind the scenes the blue is really green. This is the meaning of the False Flag term and there are many of these within your reality from the small 'white lie' if you will to the large mass deception such as the event you speak of. Indeed, that which you question us about fits this term. You were shown that which is not as it was, on multiple layers.

We break down your questions for they, in and of themselves, are complex and convoluted.

You ask us what happened.

Within the service-to-self pyramidical structure there are many layers. Those within the higher echelons of the structure have a 'different agenda' if you will from those within the middle and lower tiers. The middle and lower tiers serve the higher echelons agenda yet the paradigms, belief systems and behaviours within the lower tiers are different for just as is the case within the service-to-others structure there are the aware, the partly aware and the unaware. It is the same patterning within the service-to-self structure. Many within the lower tiers carry out 'duties' if you will believing a certain reason for their action yet in truth they are not aware of the actual reason they carry out their orders or duties.

We start therefore at the reasons for what happened from the perspective of the lower tier of the service-to-self structure. This level holds the agenda for control of the population. This is the stream of thinking that fits your expression 'dog eat dog' this is about perceived power. Orders are carried out without question with self preservation as the major motivation. Moving up the ladder, bettering oneself, having status and financial wealth are the rewards.

Being on the 'winning side' if you will, the side that shall 'control the planet' and from their perspective does 'control the planet.' They cannot conceive of any other outcome. The answer to your question from this perspective was about the control of the population. The creating of the problem, waiting for the reaction and providing the solution. This was the agenda from the lower echelons of the service-to-self structure.

The middle echelons are somewhat more aware of the deeper agenda. These are those in the positions of perceived power, they orchestrate the manoevers.

We will add that many mistakes are made at this level and the event you ask us about did not result in the outcome that was intended. Much was neutralised due to these mistakes.

However the agenda at this level is also about control, yet at this level there is a wider perception. Patience is a tool used. Plans will be made many years in advance. Awareness of off planetary colonies is within this level so the awareness of control and the lack of it is understood on a deeper level. Yet even at this level they are subordinate to superiors within the structure.

Within the middle echelons is much disagreement despite the fact that the hive mind remains mostly intact. The 'Starseed-Indigo Revolution' and 'Ascension of Humanity and Earth' is either not understood or only partly understood at this level.

There is much scientific, technological and artificial intelligence at this level, this is where you find the hidden technologies yet the full understanding of why they are needed or not needed as the case may be is not fully understood. Many at this level believe they operate within the higher echelons and are not aware that there is yet an deeper agenda above them. A higher echelon above them.

It is from the perspective of the higher echelons of the service-to-self structure that we can more better respond to your question. We do not have a window into all at this level. The right to privacies, boundaries and etiquettes still operates within the service-to-self structure.

Here we see the agenda not for world domination or new world order as is presented through the middle and lower tiers but the creation of the negative polarity dimensions as polarised mirror and opportunity for 'other than' in order to create polarisation, choice and free will.

A negative fifth dimension through polarisation of the negative polarity is the path that is perceived as 'enlightened' or 'illuminated'the consumation of lower energy as trigger into the creation of the negative polarities is utilised through events such as the one you ask us about.

The time of the harvest, chosen through numerology, astrology and other natural cosmic cycles is interpreted as sacrifice. This is, in itself, a potentially aligned interpretation of harvest for this would be sacrifice of ego self, of old self...moving from the lower chakra system into the higher chakra system, all part of the positive polarised ascension process.

Interpreted through the negative polarisation this is physical sacrifice and astrological and numerological timings and symbologies are most carefully utilised. These are the same astrological and numerological timings and symbologies utilised by aware, enlightened positively polarised individuals which leads to much confusion amongst the seeker, yet with the negatively polarised individuals subtle alterations are made, distorting the frequencies from full chakra alignment to lower chakra and third eye chakra alignments only.

The negative dimensions known also as 'fourth density negative' or the 'negative fifth dimension' or the 'negative polarisation within the fifth dimension' are created by the polarisation within the individual.

As your open hearts do create the higher dimensions, also known as 'fourth density positive', 'positive fifth dimension' or the 'positive polarisation within the fifth dimension' so too does the consuming of the lower frequencies coupled with the closing of the heart create the negative polarised dimension....the 'descension' process if you will.

The fear and associated emotion you feel en-masse, across your entire planet is utilised as energetic sustenance.

The negative polarity consumes itself whereas the positive polarity does the opposite and gives of itself.

The negative polarity absorbs whereas the positive polarity radiates.

DNA either implodes on itself creating an intentional, focused, directed wormhole into the negative polarity or it experiences itself by sharing itself by reproducing itself and multiplying itself creating focused, directed stargate technology into the positive polarity.

The negative implosion, negative density is created through strategic timings of ritual. This 'the time of the harvest' was interpreted as sacrifice.

The positive shareable fractalisation, positive density is created by intuitive timings of initiations and activations. The time of the harvest is interpreted as Ascension.

This is all to do with choice of polarisation, acting upon that polarisation and choosing to utilise the energies to create the polarisation needed for the 'negative harvest' or 'negative ascension' if you will.

This is the polarisation choice made by the service-to-self groups. You may think they are creating all that they want. You may perceive that everything they wish for, they receive and that the creation of the negative harvest, the negative ascension/dimension or descension is easy for them.

Yet the truth is it is becoming harder and harder for them to achieve their aims for the planetary frequencies no longer sustain what they do. The planetary energies no longer sustain the secrecy they once held. Their hermetic seals are becoming more and more transparent and they are moving closer and closer towards being 'caught in the act' if you will.

It is the polarisation of the positive frequencies that are being sustained by the planetary energies. Who creates these planetary energies? It is a merge between the cosmos and you, you the aware ones, the starseeds. You are directly intertwined with the planetary energies. The more awareness, unity and love you hold, the harder it is for the service-to-self groups to succeed in their plans. It may look upon the surface that they succeeded within the event you ask us about, but all did not go to plan.

Never before has one of the service-to-self mass events been so clearly seen and decoded so quickly acting as a catalyst for so many more individuals to wake to the truth.

Even those locked hard and fast into the third dimension and the false narrative are seeing the inconsistencies within this event and are asking questions they have never asked before.

This event is more than a catalyst for awareness. It is a seed point into the downfall of the service-to-self structure. Even they do not yet realise the turn of events that is yet to come that is not in their favour and is against their agenda. All they do backfires.

Be patient starseeds of light, all will be put right. All you have wanted regarding truth and justice stands in your trajectory. United you stand is the banner you must hold in order to allow that trajectory to become manifest.

Within the middle echelons of the service-to-self structure the halting of the ascension entirely is the agenda. The prevention of the raise. The blocking of the signal that creates the crystalline matrix formation.

Within the higher echelons of the service-to-self structure the creation of a negatively polarised ascension is the agenda. The understanding of the positive polarisation is accepted, respected and is not interfered with directly from this level. The creation of the negative ascension within the negatively polarised dimension is the agenda and is seen as entirely separate to the positive polarisation. In fact, the positive polarisation is seen as being assisted by the polarisation of the negative.

There are rules to be kept at this level and they are understood and respected. These rules are followed, mostly, not always, through the middle and lower tiers but are not understood or only partly understood.

We give you a simplified presentation of the service-to-self pyramidal structure here for within the three echelons are other smaller pyramidal structures, yet we respond to your question of what happened, through the perspectives of the majority energetic within these three echelons of the structure.

We give you here the reasons, in response to your question, as to the incident you speak of.

You ask us why is this still allowed to happen given that we are in the process of an ascension cycle and moving into a higher dimensional state?

It is not a case of what is allowed or not allowed. There is no greater force allowing or disallowing save the force you know as balance. It is not possible for the balance to be tipped one way or the other greater than a certain percentage due to the laws of physics that move through your Earth and your entire sector of space time and your dimension.

If the balance begins to be tipped too far in either direction then this is a 'permission slip' for other entities to become involved if you will.

Yet the metaphor of balance is but one presentation. Within this there is a full expression of positivity and a full expression of negativity. These are the dimensions or densities we speak of.

It is not about what is allowed but what you create. Within the third dimensional reality we can truthfully say that an atrocity has been committed against you and now is the time for you to move into the patterns needed, that of unification, in order to make a stand and say no more to this atrocity.

Your decoding of this situation so rapidly is a major part of the creation of the pattern we speak of.

Yet within the higher dimensions there are that which we call rules, boundaries and etiquette and there is the respecting of the free will of your planetary system. There are those who wish to prevent atrocities and they do this. Much atrocity has been thwarted and prevented. The event you question us about was thwarted to a great degree.

Yet absolute prevention of all acts of atrocity is not possible at this time due to your free will etiquette and boundaries, yet we say to you, you are on that path.

Events such as these are designed to take away your faith, your strength and your unity for your despondence, your feelings of shock, fear, confusion, helplessness and defeat are the sustenance for the negative.

Yet we see how quickly you decode, how quickly you spring back, how quickly you understand and how quickly you reconnect.

The harvest of negative abundance that promised an orchard gave but a handful of apples to those that would be sustained by you.

The way forward, the way to protect yourself and to protect all of humanity, the way to prevent the atrocities is to bounce back into ever stronger faith, ever stronger love and ever stronger unity.

You create the backfiring of the original intention. You do not do this through belligerence, through a false sense of pride, through anger and hatred but through energy and frequency. The energy you are looking for is compassion, forgiveness, love and joy.

Are we telling you to forgive the perpetrators of the atrocity of which you speak? No we are not telling you to do this for you need your warrior strength.

Yet we are saying, in time, if you can find the energy of forgiveness within it will stand mightier than any sword. Gratitude stands even mightier than this.

These may appear to be emotions to you for they are experienced as emotions by you in physical form but we say to you now, they are energy and frequency.

They are energy and frequency that is shareable, activating, healing, unifying, strengthening and ultimately creative. They are not sustenance for those who would control you. These frequencies do not assist in the building of their negative dimensions and the creations of the death star wormholes they aim to gather throughout your hyperspace and physical fourth dimensional space. Therefore raise to the frequencies that bypass wormholes and open stargates instead.

Your hearts are the key. The more vulnerable your hearts are the stronger they are. Forgiveness and gratitude are way beyond the comprehension of the service-to-self structures for they cannot access such high frequencies. They would not polarise and thus create their dimensions and their technologies if they did. There are a few, a very minority few within the higher echelons of the service-to-self structure who do intellectually understand these frequencies, they respect them and can feel them within in an experiential and experimental sense. These are those who operate with only minor judgement. Yet they still formulate the negative dimension and exist within the negative polarity.

This kind of atrocity happens within an ascension cycle for ascension is not a full incline into absolute positivity without full integration. A transcendent ascension can occur, does occur and has occurred on your planet but your current ascension cycle is an integrative one. Therefore the energies wait, to integrate and not leave behind those who may still have the chance to move into the positively polarised ascension with you, you who embody the starseed, indigo-crystal-rainbow-warrior templates of light.

The middle echelons of the service-to-self structure are making their 'last stand' if you will as the old ways, the old structures and the old control paradigm, victim/savior mentality crumbles and falls. Once the fall of the old has integrated into completeness there is no sustenance for the creation of the negative wormholes and dimensions so they move swiftly now....and mistakes are made.

What can you do to make people wake up and realise what is going on, on your planet?

You ask us this and we reply that this is a most significant and important question. Your rapid decoding and awareness of this particular atrocity creates a need within you to tell all, to make others see what you see and know what you know....yet you cannot give any other being the knowing you have, you can only share.

If your sharing is rejected then step back, with love, knowing you have tried. This is most difficult for you compassionate and loving starseeded ones we see this. If you repeatedly tell your adult son or daughter of the consequences of their actions that you so clearly see, yet they choose to take those actions anyway and reap the very consequences you foresaw, you cannot prevent this. For the learning within them must take place. A step back here is needed. Yet there are those who are open, ready, confused but eager to learn, eager to receive your knowledge and your truth, to them should you share, to them should you teach and we see the raising of awareness created by the catalytic event that is the atrocity you speak of moving higher and higher and gathering many into the arms of truth.

You have been underestimated again. Those within the middle tiers of the service-to-self pyramidal structure thought to tell you....

"we are in charge, we are in control, we will do as we have always done, hidden from you, yet in plain sight so we may laugh at your ignorance"

.....yet this is not the case. We see this is not the case. They are no longer in charge, no longer in control, they cannot do as they have always done.

Plans backfire, calculations do not yeild results, mistakes are made and they are no longer hidden, they stand in clear sight to more and more and more of you. They cannot any longer laugh at your 'ignorance' for your keen observation, awareness and understanding has superceeded theirs in leaps and bounds.

Yet stand not in judgement or pride for your compassion extends to all beings if you wish to keep that which we call 'the circle of love', the sacred geometric presentation that is the 'Mer-Ka-bah field' that is all that is you, intact.

So we say share, share, share that which you know and if there are those who cannot at this time change their belief system for the confusions and traumas it will cause them, understand them, for they are where you once stood.

Assist those who are receptive and the awareness amongst you will grow and grow just as it is foretold and prophesied to do.

You ask us Are the Angels and Extra Terrestrials helping you?

Indeed they are. Yet they are not your saviours, they are simply others like you that have polarised within the positive vibration that wish to assist their brothers and sisters within third density Earth. Indeed these angels and extra terrestrials are your family, they are you.

Remember to yourself the much used term 'we are the ones we have been waiting for' for this is indeed most accurate and most true.

You say how can you heal from this, integrate it and move forward with joy, hope and faith when things like this keep on happening?

This will be unique to you all. Each of you will have your own process of dealing with atrocities such as this. Remember you are all feeling the same way, each and everyone of you are affected by this and your greatest comfort is each other.

The expectation and intention is that this will divide you even more, creating fear and through this fear that you will turn against your brothers. This is an intention for an outcome of this atrocity and it is a timeline that does sit in your trajectory currently.

We speak not of battle across the world that you may know as a world war but of division within your country you call America that stands within the central core of the energetic shift that is the ascension.

America, the beacon of liberty to all the world, the new Atlantis is the main target for division from the service-to-self control structures.

Your way to counteract and foil this plan, for the beacon of liberty must stand strong in the New World, is to unify.

If you look at each perceived group many of you see differences you cannot overcome, this occurs across your world not only in the country that stands as the central point, America, the new Atlantis. Yet indeed you, starseeds, activated and aware ones, you can overcome these perceived differences for those who stand in the perceived different grouping are your allies.

Your unity with your allies are the greatest threat to the service-to-self structures for they must create division in order to receive the sustenance, that of fear, that they need to create the negative dimension. Therefore they manipulate you into seeing your allies as your enemies instead. This has been done for a great many years upon your planet. Yet now many of you become aware of this. Positive polarisation within you creates the awareness of unity and you see all as yourself. Now is the time to bring this fully into physical manifestation.

The service to self groups intend for division amongst you. We say to you, foil their plans and give them the opposite, with compassion in your hearts.

To those who we would call the truthseekers, the deliverers of truth, those who decode the false flag events and present the truth, these are the investigators and researchers, to you, we say, you may look at those within the communities known as lightworker, new age, spiritual, holistic or religious and see the ungrounded, the ones with their heads in the clouds you call the fluffy bunnies, space cadets and the love and light brigade....look to these individuals again...and see...they are your allies! You can unite.

To those who follow a conscious spiritual path of enlightenment and ascension you may look at the truth communities and see angry, righteous protestors who shout and proclaim their conspiracies, bang their fists upon the table and are too much for you sensitive souls so you dismiss them but we say look to these individuals again....and see...they are your allies! You can unite.

This is the same across colour, creed, culture, ideology, religion and race. Look to these individuals again....and see...they are your allies! You can unite.

The 'battle' that has been going strong on your planet within your dimension for quite some time now is a spiritual one, a non-physical one and to acknowledge the existence of said battle is the first step. Know this and integrate it.

Yet to move forward within your own ascension and enlightenment process creating a dimension of sovereignty, liberty and unity one must not hold a battle mentality for that is division, the very energetic you wish to reject.

Therefore you do not reject the division, you integrate the fact that there is a battle yet simultaneously through your ability to access the Zero Point technology within you that is the Zero Point 'the now moment' you realise that there is no battle.

Simultaneously you move forward into the future into the world that is Gaia, the 'New Earth' and you see that the battle has been won, by you.

Becoming spiritually aware, embracing compassion, forgiveness, gratitude and unity is the way forward.

We cannot say this enough. We say this through every prophet, ancient, modern and through those yet to come. Spiritual awareness, compassion, forgiveness, gratitude and unity is the way forward.

The harvest, interpreted and presented as sacrifice through the service-to-self structures is ascension for you.

The sacrifice in it's truest sense is the metaphoric sacrifice of the ego self as the true self, the higher self, the God realised self and this aspect steps forward.

The ego is integrated within the whole, not rejected or transcended. Harvest is the harvesting of souls, through ascension into the higher dimensions.

The positively polarised service-to-others 'fifth dimension' or 'fourth density positive.' This is where you are. Harvest is a time of beauty, abundance and the reaping of that which you have sown.

All that is beautiful, blissful, creating crystalline, is hijacked and distorted by those who create the opposing reality. Bouncing back to joy, whilst sending your deepest respect and your abundant compassion and love, is the healing blueprint needed for integration of the type of atrocity you ask us about.

It has been most challenging for us to come forward and present this knowledge to you at this time for our conduit, a positively polarised being, shares all the emotions you share. It was not easy for her to be objective in order to bring us, the objective aspect that we are, forward. We see it is not easy for all of you to do the same. The subjective is crucial for you as is the objective equally as crucial yet it is only when you embrace both simultaneously that you can truly look upon events such as these and find balance, integration, healing and truth.

The subjective/objective merge gives you a window into truth. Subjectivity alone leads to confusion, fear and the need for restitution. Objectivity alone leads to bypassing, lack of compassion and inability to integrate the physical aspect. One holds both. This is true alchemy and it is the alchemist within you that is your window into truth at this time.

The angels, extra terrestrials, higher light beings and incarnated aware and consciously activated starseeds are currently in the 'clean up' phase, if you will, from the event you ask us about.

The energy that was distorted with darkness is replaced with light. This is being done rapidly, much faster than at any other time in recent known history.

The intention was for this to linger in your minds, your dreams, your thoughts, your fields for a long time creating maximum impact of confusion and fear, yet the teams of light, you incarnated starseeds, the 'ground crew' as it were, are leading the way.

Compassion, love and healing is given but the intention for maximum impact is much cushioned, much lessened by the teams of light and by you.

Downloads and activations flow into the receiving fields of the starseeds so that they may make sense of this, integrate the emotions and continue to raise the frequencies into bliss charged love and create stargates not wormholes.

You have much assistance yet you hold fast within your own individualisation. In turn, you are much needed.

The rays of light do beam down upon you from the energetic you know as the Christ Consciousness, The Christos, The Krysta, the Kryst.

We speak of the crystalline formation. The twelve stranded DNA matrix that is the ascension template Mer-Ka-Bah within. Has this been halted, interrupted, damaged, prevented? Indeed it has not, it cannot be for the starseeds are aware of the machinations and manipulations and they have long since moved away from enslavement into mastery, sovereignty and liberty.

You, starseeds on Earth, you are the ones that will heal the world and transmute the darkness for you are all, each and everyone one of you, master healers.

Go forth, starseeds of light on Earth, heal the grids, the matrices, the structures, the rifts and the people of Earth.
